“IADA is pleased and honored to have this prestigious group of aviation leaders in position to carry on the organization's tradition of transparency and integrity in aircraft transactions,” said IADA Executive Director Wayne Starling. “These leaders are recognized in the aviation industry for their professionalism, reliability and knowledge and they represent the highest values in the aircraft marketplace,” he added.

“Our organization extends a heartfelt thank you to the outgoing board members who advanced the organization's profile and reputation through their diligence and hard work, including outgoing Chairman Brian Proctor, who's contributions will have a lasting impact on the organization and the industry,” Starling said.

In addition, IADA extends grateful thanks to Board Members Todd Jackson, Aircraft Sales Manager and Vice President of Acquisitions for Elliott Jets, Mitch McCune, Partner and President of CFS Jets, and outgoing Chairman of IADA Products and Services Member Advisory Council Stephan Asper, who is the Senior Vice President Marketing for AIC Title Services LLC.

IADA's dealer organizations and individual brokers do business in more than 100 countries. They utilize www.AircraftExchange.com, an online marketplace listing only aircraft offered exclusively for sale or lease by IADA members.

IADA members participate in a program of ongoing education to remain current on best practices and new developments in acquiring and selling business aircraft, as well as abiding by a strict code of ethics, integrity and transparency. IADA represents a variety of IADA verified product and aviation services that also operate with the highest professional standards in the industry.

IADA is a professional trade association formed more than 25 years ago, promoting the growth and public understanding of the aircraft resale industry. IADA now offers the world's only accreditation program for dealer organizations and the only certification program for individual brokers. The process delivers high standards of ethical business and transparency regarding aircraft transactions, leading to a more efficient and reliable marketplace.
