Los Angeles, California – Nov 11, 2019 –Brigitte Kruse , of GWS Auction House announced today that the Hollywood Graffiti Gown sold at auction from GWS Auctions at the Hard Rock Café in Hollywood Ca. The gown brought in $338,250.00 and will be donated to aids charities.

It took over 30 years to make and carries over 360 handbeaded signatures of some of Hollywood’s most fabulous leading ladies, as well as women in culture and politics– the once missing “Hollywood Graffiti Gown” is legendary, and unbelievably, no one knew where it was for almost the last decade. It was designed by Jerry Skeels and Randy McLaughlin of the Legendary Beverly Hills based, Jeran Designs. Jerry and Randy were two of the most influential and in demand couture designers of Hollywood fashion.

Having designed for motion picture, stage, and television royalty such as the Spelling Family, and many others. The famous designers worked on numerous shows and Hollywood's most elite stars wore their designs. Have you ever wondered who made some of Vanna White's iconic gowns? It was Jeran Designs. The HOLLYWOOD GRAFITIE GOWN SOLD TODAY FOR $338,250.00

The Hollywood Graffiti Gown is as legendary as the over 360 women whose names were painstakingly hand-beaded into it. The gown took almost three decades to create. The gown was unveiled in 2004 at the Academy of Television Arts & Sciences Ribbon of Hope event, a fundraiser for HIV/AIDS awareness. The gown has traveled the world and has become a global symbol of glamour, luxury, hope, compassion and philanthropy. There is no other couture fashion gown like it in the world. Lead Auctioneer, Brigitte Kruse also expects to see some of the most sought after Hollywood stylists appearing at this event to purchase the couture gowns for the upcoming Red Carpet Award Show Season for their clients.

Celebrities and Jeran Designs devotees attended the auction event including The Supremes Mary Wilson, Actress Beverly Todd, actress Judy Pace and singer-songwriter Claudette Robinson.

Also, $8 MILLION DOLLARS in Couture jewelry were sold at auction including special pieces from Bulgari, Stefan Hafner, David Webb, Van Cleef and Arpels to name a few.

The Hollywood Graffiti Gown includes signatures of; Elizabeth Taylor, Joan Collins, Dakota Fanning, Sharon Stone, Cate Blanchett, Mary Wilson, Gladys Knight, Liza Minnelli, Lana Turner, Kim Novak, Rita Hayworth, Bette Midler, Yoko Ono, Bette Davis, Whoopi Goldberg, Tippi Hedren, Stefanie Powers, Angela Lansbury, Beverly Todd, Florence Henderson, Halle Berry, Katharine Hepburn, Mother Teresa, Jaclyn Smith and countless others.

Other highlights of the over 175 vast couture gown collection includes; Jeran Designs red gown worn by Dame Joan Collins on her December 1983 Playboy Magazine cover. The Joan Collins Gown fetched just over $2,000.00, Collins in the dazzling gown remains one of Playboy's most iconic covers. The auction also highlights an original Jeran Designs hand-beaded black "Art Deco" gown most recently worn by The Supremes' Mary Wilson at a red-carpet event in Hollywood.

The auction and live fashion show took place on Saturday, November 9, 2019 at The Hard Rock Café Hollywood beginning at 10:00 a.m. and lasted until 7:00pm
