

Registration is Now Open for Small Satellites 2020

SMi Reports: Registration has opened for the Small Satellites conference taking place on 27th – 28th April 2020 in London.

LONDON, UNITED KINGDOM, November 18, 2019 / EINPresswire.com/ -- SMi is proud to announce that the Small Satellites conference will be held on 27th – 28th April 2020 in London. The event will be part of SMi's newly launched Space Week.

The event's largest early bird savings of £400 expires on 13th December. Secure your place on the event website: www.small-satellites.com/einpr1

The conference is dedicated to exploring the future of commercial and military space in the LEO small satellites market. Key topics at this event will include the legal policy framework for operating in space, creating a regulatory structure to support the small satellite industry, and how data networking across small satellite constellations is enabling new connectivity on the ground.

This year's conference chairs are Mr Roger Hunter, Program Manager, Small Spacecraft and Technology Program, NASA and Dr Stuart Evans, Director, SJE Space.

Expert speakers at the event include:

- Professor Isaac Ben Israel, Chairman, Israeli Space Agency
- Mr Gary Lay, Director of Strategic Opportunities, Surrey Satellite Technology
- Mrs Charlene Jacka, Branch Chief Engineer, Small Satellite Portfolio, AFRL, US Air Force
- Ms Kimar Gartman, Catalyst Space Accelerator Program Director, Catalyst Campus for Technology and Innovation
