

Commercial Credit Rating Upgraded for Private Jet Charter Company New Flight Charters

The Most-Accredited Jet Charter Brokerage has its Commercial Credit Rating Component Upgraded as Charter Flight Growth Continues.

DENVER, CO, USA, November 19, 2019 /EINPresswire.com/ -- New Flight Charters, the leading On-Demand private jet charter brokerage, received an upgrade of its commercial credit rating by D&B® Dun & Bradstreet amidst 2019 business growth.

New Flight Charters has averaged 13.2% annual growth for 15 years and was named to the Inc. 5000 Honor Roll as a fastest growing U.S. company four different years.

According to D&B®, "The D&B Credit Rating is a system that measures a firm's size and composite credit appraisal, based on information in a company's interim or fiscal year balance sheet and an overall evaluation of the firm's creditworthiness."

New Flight Charters' current D&B® composite credit rating is the highest possible, coded "1R2", defined as "Good". The Delinquency Predictor component of the rating was recently upgraded to Class 1-Low Risk, the best possible rating.

Company credit ratings, details and reports are available online from D&B®.

THE INDUSTRY'S MOST-ACCREDITED

Proud to be one of few in the private jet charter industry with a commercial credit rating. New Flight Charters has been credit-rated since 2004 when it was recognized with a DUNS number and approved as a U.S. Government Contractor. New Flight Charters has payment Terms with 115 leading aircraft operators and management providers.
