There are ample opportunities for the growing food and beverage industry. Snacking, health and wellness, and bold and exotic flavors are in the forefront, yet in an elevated way. Consumers are on the lookout for functional and fortified foods which fuel their brain, promote gut health, and at the same time benefit their physical appearance. Shelves in the grocery shops will continue in being stacked with products such as kombucha that offer additional function. A key trend that is likely to change this industry primarily is transparency. People are eager to know and understand the ingredients that are included in the products; no wonder a long list of innovative products having shorter ingredients have become commonplace. What people are looking for is simplicity, along with better quality foods.
