

FOUNDATION FOR A DRUG-FREE WORLD ANNOUNCES TAMPA BAY DRUG-FREE KIDS DRAWING CONTEST

Foundation for a Drug-Free World announces Kids Drawing Contest, Nov 24th in Clearwater, FL. Fun kids activities while they learn the Truth About Drugs.

CLEARWATER, FLORIDA, USA, November 21, 2019 / EINPresswire.com/ -- On November 24, 2019 at 2:00PM the Foundation for a Drug-Free World (FDFW) Florida chapter will be partnering with the Way to Happiness Association to put on the Tampa Bay Kids Drawing Contest. The event will be held at 33 N. Fort Harrison Ave in Clearwater.

There will be fun activities for children while they learn the truth about drugs and why it's important to live a drug-free life. The children will then do a drawing based on what they learned.

Kids enjoy arts and crafts and other fun activities while learning the truth about drugs.

There will be prizes for the top winners, as well as, smaller prizes for everyone who participates.

This is a family fun event and complimentary food will be served.

The Way to Happiness is a non-religious moral code based on common sense with 21 precepts to living a better life. Part of Precept #2 is "Do not take harmful drugs."

"We thought the drawing contest would be a fun way to teach this precept to young children," said Ivan Batalla the Deputy Executive Director of the Way to Happiness Association of Tampa Bay. "And partnering with the Foundation for a Drug-Free World to help educate the kids seemed to be a perfect fit."

The FDFW provides free drug education materials, including The Truth About Drugs documentary DVD and 14 different informational booklets on the most commonly abused drugs - such as marijuana, alcohol, painkillers and heroin. Anyone can get copies to share with their families and friends.
