

V4 Nations to Present Exclusive Briefings at Defence Logistics Central & Eastern Europe 2020

SMi Reports: Senior military officials from the Czech Republic, Hungary, Poland and Slovakia will be speaking at the event in Hungary next March

BUDAPEST, HUNGARY, November 25, 2019 /EINPresswire.com/ -- SMi Group are pleased to host the 5th Annual Defence Logistics Central and Eastern Europe Conference, taking place in Budapest, Hungary, on the 3rd-4th March 2020. The 2020 agenda features 21+ briefings from high ranking military and industry experts, who will cover fundamental topics ranging from Regional Updates, Heavy Lift (rail & air), Fuel Logistics, Supply Chain Management Solutions, International Operations and Solutions, 3rd party logistics, Future Trends and MRO (Maintenance, Repair and Overhaul), and many more.

For those interested in attending, the biggest early bird saving of £400 will expire on Friday 29th November 2019 at midnight. Register at www.defence-logisticscee.com/EINpr3

Last year, the V4 Joint Military Logistics Support Group Headquarters was formed, which creates the foundations for the first joint capability that the countries of the Visegrád Group (Czech Republic, Hungary, Poland and Slovakia) will work together, for joint military exercises, coordinated defence procurement and joint defence development.

SMi Group are delighted to host the 2020 event in Budapest for the first time, and with the full support of the Hungarian Defence Forces, with expert military briefings from the whole V4 perspective, who will be providing crucial updates on their latest systems, and the methods they use to collaborate and enhance their operational capacity.

Representatives include:
