

Glamour and Style Holiday Fashion Show & Toy Drive Benefits Homeless Children and Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women

Top International Fashion Designers Darlene Perkins and Shekhar Rahate headline an Evening of Art, Fashion and Entertainment in LA on Dec. 15 at Casa Vertigo

LOS ANGELES, CA, USA, December 6, 2019 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Los Angeles Fashion Community invites the public to an evening of global fashion creativity while giving back to the vulnerable populations in Los Angeles and to bring awareness to a national crisis affecting indigenous women and girls.

Anerrick Management, Blew Print Models, and TMJ Models present Glamour and Style "Holiday Fashion Show and Toy Drive" on Sunday, December 15 at 7:30 p.m. at the Casa Vertigo, 1828 Oak Street, Los Angeles, CA 90015 in the Chateau Ballroom. Media check in 5:30 p.m. Press interviews, red carpet arrivals at 6 pm, followed by a pre-show reception and the program beginning at 7:30 pm. Music by DJ Ron of Freelance Event Sound and Lighting. For talent and media submission or sponsorship contact Marie Lemelle, Platinum Star Public Relations at 213-276-7827 or m.lemelle@att.net.

The show features International Fashion Designer Darlene Perkins, the founder of Red Lightning Couture, who has designed and dressed Taboo of The Black-Eyed Peas and Pat Vega of Redbone. As an advocate of the missing and murdered indigenous women movement, Perkins' models' mouths are covered to symbolize the way an attacker would cover an individual's mouth to keep them from yelling and silence their cries for help. Perkins, a member of the Mandan, Hidatsa and Arikara Nation, works tirelessly to bring awareness and education about an issue that affects indigenous communities across the country.

Adding to the fashion extravaganza is Indian-American Fashion Designer Shekhar Rahate, founder of The Rahate Collection, known for haute couture gowns of exotic fabrics, intricate details and ornate colors. His one-of-a-kind gowns have appeared on the red carpet at the Emmy's, Oscars, and the Cannes Film Festival. Rahate is the only designer in history to show at the United Nations General Assembly Hall where 450 delegates from across 192 nations

The collaboration of fashion producers, designers, models, performers, under the shingle "Glamour and Style" have come together to create components that inspire fashion, art and entertainment. This year, Glamour and Style have selected the Los Angeles Mission as the recipient of its charitable donation. Attendees are encouraged to bring an unwrapped toy with a value of at least $5.

"Glamour and Style is a charity fashion event and toy drive to bring holiday joy to homeless children in LA and pay tribute and heighten awareness about the missing and murdered indigenous women and girls movement," said Derrick Hutchinson, CEO of the Anerrick Management Group. "According to the Los Angeles Homeless Services Authority more than 3,000 youth under the age of 18 are homeless in the City of Los Angeles and we don't want them forgotten during the holidays."

Founder of Red Lightning Couture Darlene Perkins is an advocate to heighten the awareness of the missing and murdered indigenous women movement. She shows support by covering the mouths of her models to illustrate how attackers cover their mouth to silence them.

Representing the Los Angeles Mission will be Operations Manager Kimberly Battaglia. "We are honored to be this year's recipient," she said. "As well as introduce two extraordinary women, at the event, who are on their way to rebuilding their lives through the Los Angeles Mission so that they may be inspired to pursue their dreams."

About the Los Angeles Mission
Los Angeles Mission strives to be a world leader among missions that provide for the poor, restore the addicted and eliminate homelessness. The organization sees each individual as a spiritual person of worth and dignity and worthy of assistance in their journey. Its vision is to see individuals and families set free from addictions and homelessness, transformed by God to become physically and spiritually healthy; educationally equipped to participate in society and sustain housing; and encouraged to create relationships of love and service to others. They seek to help those who have been abused and neglected to find a better life. They seek to help those who have become addicted to understand their addictions, to expect physical healing and to live in ways that are healthy to the soul, mind and body.
