

WD-HAN Has Had Enough. New Single, Spaceman, Explains Why.

WD-HAN is releasing their latest single, Spaceman, continuing their theme of dealing with departure positively and purposefully.

TAMPA BAY, FL, UNITED STATES, December 3, 2019 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Blues-Rock-Indie band WD-HAN announces the December 6 release of #2 in their three month trilogy: Spaceman. Following Summertime Star Sign by a month, Spaceman continues the theme of dealing with departure positively and purposefully. Star Sign hit WD-HAN's highest one month plays on Spotify in its first month, and Spaceman will build on those.

Where do you go when you've had enough of the world and gotta get away? You build your own rocket, thumb your nose at the world and sing Spaceman as you sail away.

As vocalist Spencer Barnes states about the track: "It's an unapologetic letter to you doing you."

WD-HAN has been building concentric circles of followers for over a decade, radiating from Tampa Bay, Florida. 2020's push will take them to the West Coast (Springboard West Festival), completing their coverage of the US. With a strong following in Taiwan from their three tours there, WD-HAN is on the verge of becoming a planetary phenomenon.

“

Your music is a perfect mix of something like Neon Trees, that grime of The Black Keys and bombast of The Killers, accessible in the best of ways with a touch of complimentary pop.”

Jenelle, Readable Noise
