Athena Health Executive Forum at Harvard Business School. Teddi R. Barber, Vice President of Health Care Strategy and Innovation at Stonehill, will join some of the nation's leading Health Care Executives at Harvard Business School to discuss the industry, strategic drivers, and the injection of technology. Sponsored by Athena Health, this Executive Forum will serve as a rare opportunity for health care leaders to discuss key industry changes and their unique perspectives on where the future of health care lies.

The creation of this health care incubator by Harvard and Athena Health is a tremendous opportunity for leaders in the health care space to discuss pivotal changes and impacts to the industry.”

Teddi R. Barber, Vice President of Stonehill

The Athena Health Executive Forum is an unmatched strategic opportunity for health care leaders in the industry. A Harvard Business School Professor will facilitate this exclusive group of peers in an engaging yet intimate two-day forum. Attendees will explore how the health care landscape has evolved, aligning interests across all stakeholders it serves, and delve into pivotal issues of technology to set the stage for innovation and practical strategies to be put right to work. The Executive Forum will take place in Boston, MA from December 5-6, 2019.
