LAS VEGAS, HENDERSON, USA, December 6, 2019 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Anthem Injury Lawyers teamed up with the Nevada Justice Association to volunteer at the non-profit organization Three Square Food Bank. Members of the Anthem Injury Lawyers team spent a morning preparing and packaging meals for people experiencing food insecurity in Southern Nevada.

Three Square Food Bank is a non-profit organization and Feeding America affiliate focused on ending hunger in the communities of Clark, Nye, Lincoln and Esmeralda in Southern Nevada. They use food banking (warehousing canned and boxed goods), food rescue (collecting unused or surplus meat, bread, dairy and produce from hospitality and grocery outlets) and ready-to-eat meals to help the approximately 271,000 food insecure people of Southern Nevada. Three Square works with over 1,400 community partners and volunteers like Anthem to reach those struggling or at risk of hunger. Last year Three Square distributed 39 million meals through their community partners, which includes non-profit and faith-based organizations, schools, after-school and feeding sites.

The Nevada Justice Association (NJA) is a membership-based, independent non-profit educational organization of independent lawyers who represent consumers. The NJA's primary goal is to improve the civil justice system by providing up-to-date legal knowledge and information through legal education programs, ensuring Nevadans' access to the courts, and educating the public regarding their individual rights as citizens. The NJA holds regular events, like volunteering opportunities, to foster community and networking among Las Vegas trial lawyers who share these values. NJA members share their insight, knowledge, and experience to help their fellow trial lawyers be the best for their clients.
