Medicine Voice Concert to raise awareness for the Never Alone movement

LOS ANGELES, CA, UNITED STATES, December 7, 2019 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Nicole Brandon, CEO of Artistry in Motion and a talented actress/producer, has had a successful year so far. She's made great strides in many of her professional pursuits, as well as being chosen by the "Best of Los Angeles Award" community as one of L.A.'s "100 Most Fascinating People." Now, the visionary woman will be hosting and producing "The Medicine Voice," a new Michel Pascal show being performed at Carnegie Hall this December launched by Never Alone, a Film, Movement and a Vision for the Future.

"Michel Pascal, one of the greatest voices of all time is singing, and that is a magical thing because nobody sings like Michel," praises Brandon.

Taking place Tuesday December 10, 2019 at 8:00 p.m. at the Weill Recital Hall in Carnegie Hall, "The Medicine Voice," a Michel Pascal concert, is being staged to support the #NeverAlone movement and to bring awareness to mental health and suicide prevention. The World Event is being Produced by; Actress, Author and Renowned Humanitarian Nicole Brandon and Michel Pascal, the magical medicine voice of the century. "I'm so proud of this extraordinary show," states Nicole Brandon. "Tickets will go fast, so hurry and reach out to today." (carnegiehall.org or 212-247-7800)

Michel Pascal will be head lining this concert, but many more talented groups will be joining him on stage. According to Nicole Brandon, "Michel will give the concert with probably one of the best bands on stage, with Earth, Wind & Fires superstar Myron McKinley, along with our favorite musicians in America, the incomparable drummer, Stacey Lamont Snyder, the profoundly talented mystic bass player Ian Martin and the versatile, engaging and powerhouse guitar playing of Paul Pesco, the saxophone player of "Sting" Butch Thomas and the choir of the first Unity Spiritual Campus will join us for the final fireworks, featuring the incredible lead vocal and vocal director Wanda Nero Butler, Rebeka Mooney, Tracey Cheyenne Johnson and Camille Raciopio. It will be quite a show!"

For the first time on stage, audiences will be able to see a celebrity ensemble cast including Deepak Chopra, Michael Bernard Beckwith, Gabriella Wright, Temple Hayes, and many others special guests like the amazing psychiatric doctor Diane Powell, Rev. Kimberley Harrell, Christina
