Take a Look at the Couple of Client Reviews Received by Fueled:

Fueled was brought in as a dev team on a high profile mobile project. Together we delivered native apps for iOS and Android. The team was organized and easily able to assume a leadership role across several vendors on the project. The timeline was fixed and the scope was non-negotiable. I trusted my team as SMEs and was impressed with their ability to remain Agile on a project with so many fixed constraints. - Ryan Schwartz, Sr. Mgr - Mobile Applications at Alterra Mountain Company

Overall we had a great experience with Fueled. The app was completed on time and with the budget that was originally stated. The project was well managed from beginning to end, and the final product looked quite nice for an MVP. (Other people with experience seeing typical MVP products told us this.) Also, when an issue was identified after the project was completed, Fueled fixed the issue at no cost and in a reasonable time frame. - David Wender
