

FinancesOnline Awards Qore Technologies as a Rising Star with Premium UX in Digital Process Automation Category

FinancesOnline, a leading B2B software review platform, has awarded Qore Technologies with 2 relevant recognitions in the Enterprise Business Solutions Segment.

PRAGUE, CZECH REPUBLIC, December 20, 2019 /EINPresswire.com/ -- (5min read)

FinancesOnline, a leading business software review platform for the global B2B technology market, has recently awarded Qore Technologies with not one - but two relevant recognitions in the Enterprise Business Segment. Qore Technologies' product, Qorus Integration Engine®, was chosen as the winner of 2019 Expert's Choice Awards, in two major enterprise business solutions categories: product quality and user experience (UX).

FinancesOnline lauded the Qore Technologies platform for helping enterprises perform successful digital transformation projects through fault-tolerant automation of their IT process and real IT/OT/IoT integration for raising business efficiency and significantly reducing operational costs at the same time. Furthermore, Qorus Integration Engine® was also touted as an "ideal" process automation platform due to its unique fault-tolerant automation features and elegant building-block design for facilitating easy process orchestration, which can be performed even by non-expert users.

"For us in Qore Technologies, these accolades only reflect the success of Qorus as a digital process automation solution, proving that the software design and ease of use have impressed not only our enterprise customers but market experts equally." - said Mr. David Nichols, CEO of Qore Technologies.

The rankings didn't stop there, as Qore Technologies catapulted right into the distinguished list of leading enterprise software solutions, joining other long-time, big-named players in the market. With a high user rating, we've also earned a high position in the "Top Business Process Management Solutions" list.

This additional recognition shows that Qore Technologies continues to be a gold standard in the world of process automation and IT/OT/IoT integration due to our solution's well-thought-out functionality that helps enterprises to take control and easily manage their IT processes.

According to Finances Online, "The best part of Qorus is that users can setup their own, fully
