Description: -

The Indian popcorn market expected to rise with a double digit CAGR during the forecast period from 2018 to 2022.

The adoption of western culture and rise in disposable income are the prime reasons backing the lucrative growth of the market. Furthermore, growing awareness regarding fitness has changed the preference of the industry towards healthy food, which aids in the high consumption of the popcorn. The high-profit margin being provided by the popcorn business is also inducing a major change in India's agriculture. The popcorn market in India has witnessed huge development over the past few years, with popcorn becoming a preferred munching snack for people, especially in the urban areas.
