

New Speaker from UK MoD Announced for Defence Aviation Safety 2020

SMi reports: Timothy Rowntree, Director Engineering and Safety, DE&S UK MoD will be presenting at the Defence Aviation Safety conference next April.

LONDON, UNITED KINGDOM, December 13, 2019 / EINPresswire.com/ -- SMi Group are pleased to announce that a new speaker has been confirmed for Defence Aviation Safety, which is set to convene in London on the 23rd and 24th of April 2020.

With safety being a key priority for those in the military aviation domain, the two-day event provides the opportunity for senior military leaders and defence experts from government and industry to come together to discuss how aviation safety can be optimised.

Given this, the latest addition to the speaker line-up, Timothy Rowntree, Director Engineering and Safety, DE&S UK MoD, will be presenting a crucial briefing on "Addressing the Safety Challenges of Unmanned Systems: DE&S Priorities and Perspectives."

The presentation will cover:

- Creating safety standards for current and future unmanned systems
- Planning for complex mission sets and varied airspace requirements
- An update on DE&S plans for greater safety oversight of Unmanned Systems
- Working with industry to ensure success

Timothy Rowntree is just one of many defence experts set to speak at Defence Aviation Safety. The conference aims to provide a unique opportunity for leaders and experts to meet and share best practice that will save lives and protect capability, making it a key event for those in the field.

An early bird saving of £400 is available for bookings made by the end of Friday 13th December 2019 – interested parties can book at: <http://www.defenceaviationsafety.com/EINpr5>
