In addition to regular-season games, the team will also be participating in a variety of showcases, including the Shamrock Showcase, the MLK Showcase, and the Lehigh Valley Hoop Group Showcase.

"Our students always have a great time out on the court," says Robert Lysek, founder and CEO of the Lehigh Valley charter school. "And we couldn't ask for a better group of family, friends, and fellow students to cheer them on."

This is the second year of varsity sports at the Allentown charter school. EEACS gained PIAA status in late 2018 and kicked off the boys' varsity basketball season for the 2018-2019 school year. The team went on to compete in the PIAA District XI Championships. Other varsity sports include wrestling, girls' basketball, volleyball, baseball, and softball.
