cannabis has helped my fellow servicemembers. There are millions of veterans that need access to safe, effective and high-quality cannabis products to help them lead a freer, fuller and happier life. iVIK's partnership with G&G Laboratories means veterans will not have to compromise.”

“Veterans should not suffer and be distracted from activities that others take for granted,” said Mike Lui, CEO of G&G Laboratories, and U.S. Army Veteran, serving in Civil Affairs during a combat tour in Iraq (2005-2006). In the United States alone, there are an estimated 100 million people that suffer from chronic pain, many of them veterans. “I am a veteran, with a combat tour in Iraq and deeply care about the needs of veterans. We at G&G know that veterans need approachable and reliable products that they can trust. G&G Laboratories started with the vision to develop topical products, such as Relevium™, that allow Veterans to get back to living. By partnering with iVIK, G&G products and formulations will can each even more veterans in emerging cannabis markets.
