CLEARWATER, FL, US, December 19, 2019 /EINPresswire.com/ -- With Holiday cheer the Clearwater Community Volunteers (CCV) Center hosted a tea party on December 14th to gather toys for children for an annual foster family toy drive. These toys will be distributed to foster and adopted children at the 4th Annual Holiday Fun for Children event inside CCV's Winter Wonderland.

"It's only with the support of local 'Clearwater-ians' that the CCV Center can gather these much-needed supplies for nonprofit organizations around the Greater Tampa Bay Area," said Michael Soltero, Manager of the CCV Center. "Each month we focus on a different nonprofit so that a ripple effect for good can benefit everyone in our community, especially the children."

One of the returning guests from October's tea party said "It's a lot of fun to come to these tea parties. It's even better that we can contribute to a great cause while having fun at the same time."

This month's tea party was Christmas-themed with red and white table cloths and Christmas stories shared by the guests.

Mr. Geary Titus, a next-door neighbor of humanitarian and founder of the Scientology religion, L. Ron Hubbard, in Port Orchard, Washington, was featured as the keynote speaker. Sitting beside the Christmas tree, Mr. Titus shared a Christmas story that included Mr. Hubbard.

Titus spoke of how he, along with several other friends of Mr. Hubbard, snuck a Harley Davidson motorcycle underneath the Christmas tree as their gift to Mr. Hubbard as he slept on Christmas Eve.

"It was worth it to sneak a 1500cc Harley Davidson up 4 stories and through a narrow passageway – by taking off the handle bars – without making a sound to surprise the heck out of Mr. Hubbard when he came the next morning for breakfast!" said Titus.

At the Christmas Toy Drive Tea Party Mr. Geary Titus, an former neighbor of Scientology founder L. Ron Hubbard, shared his Christmas adventure with Mr. Hubbard with guests in attendance. Guests donated a Christmas toy for a foster child to attend the event.
