

A Houstonian Christmas by the Numbers

It's hard not to be in the Christmas spirit as guests are dazzled by the sheer amount of Christmas décor on the 27-acre property at The Houstonian.

HOUSTON, TX, UNITED STATES,
December 19, 2019 /

EINPresswire.com/ -- Christmas time is all about numbers; number of presents to buy, number of Christmas parties to attend or holiday cards to send out, number of Christmas cookie calories to count. You get the idea...

At The Houstonian Hotel, Club & Spa we've done some counting of our own, and we think everyone will be impressed by our Christmas numbers. Procrastinators beware however, all of the Christmas magic will be carefully packed away on December 29. You won't want miss out on the opportunity to marvel at the Texas sized amount of holiday fun for the whole family.

Holiday Décor

30,000 – Total number of ornaments across the 27-acre property. That's almost twice the capacity of the Toyota Center.

4,500 – Length of garland used (in feet). That's the length of 27 Olympic-sized swimming pools.

600 – Man hours needed to put up all the décor.

18 – Height of largest Christmas tree (in feet) in The Houstonian's iconic Great Room. The Great Room tree is the largest tree on property with over 4,000 ornaments.

16 – Number of team members who put up the holiday décor. That's nearly three times the population of the tiniest town in Texas. (Guerra, Texas, population 6).

1 – One of a kind authentic antique sleigh for Santa display in the lobby.

Merry Mansions Gingerbread Display

275 – Pounds of candy, mints, and peppermint sticks used to decorate the gingerbread houses. That's the weight of a reindeer!

4,500 feet of garland was used to decorate the hotel - that's the length of 27 Olympic sized swimming pools!

More than 30,000 Christmas ornaments are hung at The Houstonian - that's almost twice the capacity of the Toyota Center.

200 – Amount of gingerbread dough used (in pounds). Also, the number of miles from Houston to Corpus Christi.

150 – Amount of royal icing used (in pounds) to decorate the gingerbread houses. That's one more than the number of hits by Jose Altuve this season.

3 – Number of months it took 6 pastry chefs to complete. One third of an entire year!

4 – Number of John Staub Estate Home gingerbread replicas. Only in Houston.

Lighted Texas Oak Tree on the Meadow

56,000 – Total lights used on the tree. That's one light for every student enrolled at the University of Houston.

7.6 – Number of miles the lights strands would reach if placed end to end. The strands of lights would circle the Memorial Park loop more than 2.5 times.
