This year's winners in the 'Top 40 Best Restaurants in Bali' list were revealed at the second annual awards, by Foodies Magazine, Indonesians leading Food & Beverage English language publication. The event celebrates the remarkable food scene in Bali, and the island's emergence as a culinary destination in the last few years. "The idea of the awards is to show people the diversity of local restaurant scene, push chefs and restaurateurs from their boundaries and drive culinary creativity and excellence," says Jed Doble, Publisher of Foodies Magazine.

A panel of culinary experts including Janet De Neeffe, founder of Ubud Food Festival, and celebrity chefs Yuda

Bustara and Rinrin Marinka, judged restaurants on various criteria including cuisine, service, drinks menu and interior design/character.

Presenting a unique mix of five-star flair and relaxed ambience Bejana clings to the limestone cliffs of Nusa Dua, offering diners panoramic views of the sparkling Indian Ocean. Melding traditional and contemporary Balinese design elements the restaurant's three distinct levels include an expansive open-air wooden deck with cozy lounges and casual outdoor seating, a stylish dining room and an atmospheric Culinary Cave where guests can join inspiring cooking classes. The highly acclaimed restaurant was also a winner at the World Luxury Restaurant Awards in July this year in both the Luxury Family Restaurant category (Continent Winner,) and the Luxury Scenic Setting category (Regional Winner.)
