

Mrs. Maryam Rajavi attends Christmas Eve Ceremony in Tirana, Albania

Several Albanian leaders including President Ilir Meta & his wife Monika Kryemadhi leader of the Socialist Movement for Integration Party attended the event

WASHINGTON, DC, USA, December 25, 2019 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Mrs. Maryam Rajavi, the President-elect of the National Council of Resistance of Iran \(NCRI\), attended ceremonies marking the birth of Jesus Christ in Saint Paul Church of the Metropolitan Archdiocese of Tirana- Durres on Tuesday, December 24, 2019.

In remarks congratulating Christmas, George Antonio Frendo, Archbishop of Tirana and Duress, said: "Hail to you Mr. President (President Ilir Meta). I am delighted to see you among us. We are honored by your attendance of this magnificent celebration. And I hail you Mrs. Rajavi, representing the Iranian community in our country. We pray for those in your country, who are oppressed, and enduring pain and suffering."

Mrs. Rajavi extended her gratitude to Archbishop Frendo, and presented him with a book containing the list of names of 20,000 martyrs of the People's Mojahedin Organization of Iran. She said that the Iranian people were paying the heaviest possible price in their struggle to rid Iran of the religious fascism ruling Iran. Mrs. Rajavi expressed hope that in the future Iran, all sectors of Iranian society, regardless of their religions and traditions, or their ethnicity and nationality would live side-by-side in freedom and equality.

Several Albanian leaders and distinguished personalities, including President Ilir Meta, Monika Kryemadhi, the leader of the Socialist Movement for Integration Party and the President's wife, Ms. Elona Gjebra, Secretary for the Foreign Relations Committee of the Parliament and former Deputy Interior Minister, and Ms. Diana Culi, the renowned Albanian author, attended the ceremonies.

Mrs. Maryam Rajavi, the President-elect of the NCRI (front row, 2nd from right), joining Christmas ceremonies marking the birth of Jesus Christ at the Metropolitan Archdiocese of Tirana- Durres. Albanian President Ilir Meta (front) also attended the celebrations.

###

These materials are being distributed by the National Council of Resistance of Iran-U.S. Representative Office. Additional information is on file with the Department of Justice, Washington, D.C.

National Council of Resistance of Iran-U.S. Office

Alirreza Jafarzadeh

+1 202-747-7847

email us here

Visit us on social media:

Facebook

Twitter

Albanian President, Ilir Meta (front), attending Christmas celebrations marking the birth of Jesus Christ. Mrs. Maryam Rajavi, the President-elect of the National Council of Resistance of Iran (1st row, 2nd from right,), also attended the ceremonies.

Mrs. Maryam Rajavi, the President-elect of the NCRI, presenting to George Antonio Frendo, Archbishop of Tirana and Dures, a book containing the list of names of 20,000 members of the People's Mojahedin Organization of Iran executed by the Iranian regime.

Mrs. Maryam Rajavi, the President-elect of the National Council of Resistance of Iran, speaking to George Antonio Frendo, Archbishop of Tirana and Dures during Christmas celebrations marking the birth of Jesus Christ at the Metropolitan Archdiocese.

Mrs. Maryam Rajavi, the President-elect of the National Council of Resistance of Iran (NCRI), laying wreath in homage to Mother Teresa, during Christmas celebrations marking the birth of Jesus Christ at the Metropolitan Archdiocese of Tirana-Durres.

Disclaimer: If you have any questions regarding information in this press release please contact the company listed in the press release. Please do not contact EIN Presswire. We will be unable to assist you with your inquiry. EIN Presswire disclaims any content contained in these releases. © 1995-2019 IPD Group, Inc. All Right Reserved.