“Many people have a New Year’s resolution to get a fresh start,” said Amber Skjelset, Manager of the Scientology Information Center. “Scientology founder L. Ron Hubbard wrote ‘Never regret yesterday. Life is in you today and you make your own tomorrow.’ A new year is a great reason to start again and in addition to the tools provided through Scientology, we wanted to share some other information that may come in handy.”

Ms. Kirsch has been named Best Color Consultant in the “Best of LA” issue of Los Angeles magazine. Jill is frequently called upon by Red Carpet celebs, Grammy-winning musicians and titans of business for color coaching. In addition, Jill can be seen in the award winning documentary “Gray Is the New Blonde.”

“Have you ever bought clothes with the latest ‘color of the season’ and wondered why it does nothing for you, or at worst, why it makes you look ill? Well there’s a simple reason, and it has to do with the color of your hair and the shade of color that’s right for you,” said Ms. Kirsch, who will share her knowledge over tea and scones.

“The Information Center is open to anyone curious about Scientology,” said Ms. Skjelset, “but the Center also serves as a venue which showcases artistic performances, meetings, social gatherings and educational programs such as this one.
