

Tampa Bay Children Invited to Make Resolutions

CLEARWATER, FL, UNITED STATES, December 26, 2019 / EINPresswire.com/ -- On December 28th at 2:00pm, the Clearwater Community Volunteers Center and the Way to Happiness Association Tampa Bay will host a Children's New Year's party, with a special New Year's Ball Drop included. Families and children are welcomed to participate in an assortment of complimentary activities and to create their New Year's for a safer and happier community. Guests can RSVP by contacting the CCV center directly at (727) 316-5309.

"At the CCV Center we work with nonprofits and volunteer organizations with the purpose of creating safer neighborhoods for families," said Michael Soltero, Manager of the CCV Center. "We wanted to work with the children to let them know that improvement and happiness are possible, and what better way than with a New Year's resolution?"

The event will begin in the Way to Happiness center, located at 33 N. Fort Harrison Ave., where children will receive a lesson on the precept "Flourish and Prosper" to show them that one can succeed in the new year despite potential barriers.

At 4:00PM, the guests will move for the family-friendly New Year's Ball drop celebration at 4p.m. Children can create resolution cards to their parents, decorate cookies and pop party poppers.

In addition to community events like the Children's New Year's Party, nonprofit and volunteer organizations can use the CCV Center for their own activities, at no cost to their organization. Interested volunteer groups or nonprofits can call the CCV center at (727) 316-5309 to reserve the facilities or to arrange a tour.

If you would like to attend the event, please call Michael Soltero at (727) 316-5309 or email ccvcenter@ccvfl.org.

About the Clearwater Community Volunteers:
