effects including: stuffy nose, coughing or wheezing, sore throat, and even burning eyes or skin rash. The CDC warns "people with asthma or who are allergic to mold may have severe reactions. Immune-compromised people and people with chronic lung disease may get infections in their lungs from mold."

The Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) states if you have a mold problem, you need to clean up the mold and fix the source of moisture to prevent mold growth. If you cannot locate the mold or the source of moisture, you may need a mold inspection to help you determine where the mold problem is located on your Escondido home.

Escondido residents can rely on EZ Mold Inspections for trustworthy mold inspections and testing. Along with his expertise, Mr. Armstrong brings tremendous value to his customers because he understands and can properly interpret mold testing results while other mold inspectors cannot. In addition, Mr. Armstrong is known for his genuine care for his customers, honest answers, and ethical business practices.
