Owner and CEO of Exceptional Villas, Alexandra Baradi said, “Exceptional Villas experienced a 25% growth in 2019 over 2018 and are predicting a similar growth in 2020”. The company also noted that they are experiencing a significant increase in bookings from families taking multi-generational breaks together and groups of adults wishing to vacation together.

1) Barbados has always been extremely popular amongst Exceptional Villas clients. It is a stunningly beautiful island which has a wonderful balance between beauty, sophistication, history and authentic Caribbean culture. The island of Barbados has some of the worlds best beachfront villas such as famous properties like The Dream and Crystal Springs. Click Here for More information. Barbados also has an incredible selection of oceanfront restaurants. Barbados is popular from North America and Europe, especially Great Britain. The demand for Barbados is so high that the company operates a designated brand for the island called Villas Barbados.

2) The Turks and Caicos islands are also performing exceptionally well with a 30% increase in both enquiries and forward reservations. The island of Providenciales has the advantage of having direct access from many major cities in both the United States and Canada. Provo is also the location for the very famous Grace Bay Beach. Grace Bay Beach has been voted the number one beach in the world by many reputable sources over the years. The islands of Turks and Caicos also have an incredibly good selection of very luxurious beachfront villas and condominiums.

3) Italy is one of Europe's most stunningly beautiful and cultural countries. It is famous for its long Mediterranean coastline as well as its great cuisines, friendly people and fascinating history. Italy is also home to some of the world's most beautiful and exciting cities. Venice is possibly one of the world's most romantic and Rome one of the world's most artistically exciting. Other cities include Florence, which is full of Renaissance masterpieces such as Brunelleschi's Duomo and Michelangelo's David and Milan one of the world's fashion capitals.

4) Mexico has enjoyed a status as one of the world's premier tourist destinations for decades. It is particularly popular from its neighbouring United States. Over 37 million US citizens visited Mexico in 2018. Exceptional Villas has seen a 27% increase in demand for Mexico. The most popular destinations are the Riviera Maya, Cabo San Lucas, Tulum and Puerto Vallarta.

5) Hawaii is another trendy destination especially from the United States. Nearly 10 million people visited the islands of Hawaii in 2018 with an expenditure of over 16 billion. Hawaii is an accessible year-round destination because it experiences mild weather for most of the year. The most popular islands from a luxury vacation rental perspective are Maui and Kauai according to Exceptional Villas.
