

CEOGC Partners with Spectrum - Hiring for 100 Jobs

CEOGC's workforce development teams are partnering with Spectrum to fill 100 jobs in the Greater Cleveland area.

CLEVELAND , OH, USA, January 10, 2020 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Cleveland (January 2020) — The Council for Economic Opportunities in Greater Cleveland is partnering with Spectrum to fill 100 open jobs in Cuyahoga County. CEOGC's Community Services and Workforce teams will host a Hiring/Recruitment Day on January 17, 2020, from 10:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m., at CEOGC's Central Neighborhood Opportunity Center, located at 1801 Superior Ave in Cleveland.

The partnership between CEOGC and Spectrum dates back nearly 4 years and continues to grow stronger with each recruitment event.

"For as long as I've been here, Spectrum has been a pleasure to work with," said Matt Anderson, Job Development Specialist for CEOGC. "They're very helpful and communicative regarding their needs. We have a strong working relationship and our team hopes to continue successfully servicing their hiring needs."

Last year, CEOGC and Spectrum held a similar hiring event where Spectrum hired nearly 30 of the 74 attendees on the spot. This year, Spectrum is looking to hire 100 entry-level call center support staff.

Attendees can expect:

- One-on-One Interviews for Customer Service Positions
- Assessments are required before job offer
- Wages: $15 an hour including paid training
- Hiring for 2nd shift positions at the Garfield Heights Support Center

Attendees must bring a resume and dress professionally for on-the-spot interviews.

If you are interested in this event, please visit www.ceogc.org/spectrum_hiringevent to pre-register or call Workforce Development at (216) 651-5188 ext. 638.
