USA vs INTERNATIONALS vs EUROPE

Modelled after golf's Ryder Cup, The Collins Cup is a competition among USA, Europe and the Internationals. Each team will consist of 12 professional triathletes, six men and six women. Eight athletes, four men and four women, will earn a place on their respective teams by way of the PTO World Rankings™ System and the remaining four athletes, two men and two women, will be selected by the non-athlete PTO Board Members with advice from Team Captains.

The Team Captains for The Collins Cup 2020 are:

USA vs INTERNATIONALS vs EUROPE

Mark Allen vs Craig Alexander vs Normann Stadler
Karen Smyers vs Simon Whitfield vs Chrissie Wellington
Erin Baker vs
Lisa Bentley vs

An athlete from each team will battle against one another in an individual race of three, so there will be 12 separate race matches, each staggered 10 minutes apart. Athletes will be awarded points for their team based on performances in their respective race match and the team with the most overall points from the 12 race matches will claim the spoils of The Collins Cup and bragging rights as the most dominant force in the sport. The team that finishes last will receive The Broke Spoke Trophy. Click here to view "How It Works"

Sam Renouf, CEO of the PTO, commented, "The format of USA vs Europe vs Internationals will add a whole new level of competition and pure excitement for triathlon. appeals not only to the fans of endurance sports, but also to the general sports enthusiast."

The primary mission of the PTO is to celebrate the sport of triathlon.
