

AEssenseGrows CEO Robert Chen to Deliver Keynote at Cannabis Investor Summit in Denmark

The Jan. 28 Event Brings Together Investors and Cannabis Entrepreneurs in an Effort to Accelerate the Maturation of the Danish Cannabis Ecosystem

SUNNYVALE, CALIFORNIA, UNITED STATES, January 22, 2020 /EINPresswire.com/ -- AEssenseGrows CEO Robert Chen will be the keynote speaker next week at the first-ever Cannabis Investor Summit in Denmark. Chen, who has a long history of building successful Silicon Valley businesses, will deliver a presentation Jan. 28 titled, "Investing in Cannabis-- Success Tips from a Silicon Valley Entrepreneur." Chen's remarks will focus on recognizing business opportunities, building a business ecosystem, and knowing when to exit.

"I am very much looking forward to participating in this summit alongside so many others dedicated to building up the cannabis industry in Denmark," said Chen. "As is the case globally, Denmark's cannabis industry is in its infancy, and I have no doubt sessions like the Cannabis Investor Summit can move it forward significantly."

Organizers said the summit will provide an opportunity for public, institutional and private players to discuss ways to build the Danish cannabis ecosystem, while strengthening the relationship between investors, cannabis entrepreneurs and industry influencers. Recreational use of cannabis is illegal in Denmark, though medicinal use is legal through a four-year-old pilot program that began in 2018.
