

Sponsor Association Noosphere Presentation Released for the upcoming Network Centric Warfare Conference in Rome

SMI Reports: Association Noosphere is the latest sponsor to sign up for the Network Centric Warfare Conference in Rome, in less than two weeks' time

LONDON, UNITED KINGDOM, January 22, 2020 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The 4th Annual Network Centric Warfare Conference, taking place in Rome on the 3rd-4th February 2020, promises to be bigger and better, with less focus on updates/roadmaps from different programmes, but with more focus on specific initiatives, and strategies for maximising interoperability.

Event highlights include:

- The only event with a focus on the Italian Army's Forza NEC programme, meet and network with the senior leadership of the Italian Army including the Chief of Army Staff and Commander Logistics Command
- The only event singularly focused on the world's network modernisation initiatives, including the Integrated Tactical Network, Tactical Edge Network, Mission Partner Environment and Mime Programme
- The only conference which involves a diverse number of nations, with new speakers from across the world such as United States, the Netherlands, Germany, France and Estonia

The event brochure including the full agenda and speaker line-up is available to download online at <http://www.netcentric-warfare.com/einpr9>

SMi Group are pleased to announce that Association Noosphere have recently signed up to sponsor the highly anticipated event.

Mr Mark Opgenorth, Strategic Development, Trident Defence will be offering a discussion on 'The Russia Challenge and Defence Innovation in Ukraine', covering:

- Russian advances in network-centric warfare
- Lessons from the conflict in Eastern Ukraine
- Volunteers, entrepreneurs and the defence ecosystem

Trident Defence is a commercial enterprise established by Association Noosphere with the mission of ensuring the success of Ukraine through defense investment and security
