

BB King's Grandson Fights Human Trafficking with January Gentlemen's Ball

CLEARWATER, FL, UNITED STATES, January 23, 2020 /EINPresswire.com/ -- On January 18th, Mr. Christopher King, President of United for Human Rights and the grandson of Blues legend BB King, held the Gentlemen's Ball Against Human Trafficking. The event was held at the Fort Harrison, the international religious retreat for the Church of Scientology. With 350 people in attendance, the event ushered in a new decade of the fight against human trafficking.

"I am not willing to let human trafficking, bullying or violence occur, not on my watch," said Mr. King. "It's time for us to fight our battles, it's time for us to stand for what is right, it's time for us to be a unit, a true community that seeks a change through not only peace but the proper perspective."

The Fort Harrison hosted BB King's grandson Christopher King for the Gentlemen's Ball Against Human Trafficking on January 18th 2020. The event was a fundraiser to raise awareness against Human Trafficking and created to empower young men and women to become

Mr. Christopher King featured charities whom he partners with, such as the United for Human Rights program, one of the largest non-governmental human rights education initiatives, leading millions to discover their rights. Mr. King's non-profit organization, the Gentlemen's Course, uses the United for Human Rights program to educate the youth he delivers his course to.

The highlight of the event were the recipients of the Gentleman and Lady of the Year award. These two youth were acknowledged for showing great improvement in their lives and epitomizing the 30 rules for being a gentleman and the 12 rules for being a lady.

Clemence Chevrot, the Community Affairs Director for the Church of Scientology Flag Service Organization and the evening's host, said, "Humanitarian and Scientology Founder L. Ron Hubbard said, 'In a turbulent world, the job is not easy. But then, if it were, we wouldn't have to be doing it.'"

The Church of Scientology Flag Service Organization makes the Fort Harrison available for charity fundraisers and events. For more information on how to hold an event for your charitable organization, please call (727) 467-6860.
