"Adornment is extremely powerful and I am thrilled that my collectors feel my pieces express their creativity and spirituality and really mean something to them on a deeper level." "

Inspired by the belief that Valentine's day is not just about lovers, the Heart Collection was created to reflect a different view. Cheryl would love to see people use the day this year to express their love, appreciation or affection for someone in their lives who doesn't normally receive it. February 14th is the perfect opportunity to remind the people in our lives; the friends, relatives, those we hold close, or even ourselves, just how much they are cherished.

The Heart Collection ranges in price from $40 to $180.

Cheryl is excited to welcome her collectors to this new limited edition collection.
