Michaan's Expertise & Personal Service Helps Sellers Achieve Higher Auction Prices

At Michaan's, the goal is to help sellers realize the highest possible auction prices for their art, furniture, collectibles, jewelry and other property. What differentiates Michaan's Auctions from other auction houses is its personal service. There are no photography fees charged for sellers' items when they are photographed for Michaan's Auctions' catalogs or website. Sellers receive a copy of the listing that includes a full description and price range estimate. In the event that an item does not sell, Michaan's doesn't charge insurance or a buy-in fee to take the item back.

With the extensive experience offered by Michaan's specialists in its many departments (Asian Art; Coins, Stamps & Ephemera; Collectibles & Ephemera; Fine Art; Furniture & Decorative Arts and Jewelry & Timepieces), sellers can be assured that their pieces will be represented by experts who know and can communicate the items' value to potential buyers.
