STAMFORD, CT, USA, January 30, 2020 /EINPresswire.com/ -- CTM Media Group, one of the largest distributors of visitor and tourism information in North America, has just announced the winners of their 2019 Annual Best Brochure Award contest.

The award recognizes excellence in brochure design and highlights various tourism attractions, restaurants, museums and experiences. Factors for the award selection committee include brochure headline, visual appeal, composition, construction and overall content messaging.

The award-winners were selected among 3,000+ tourism brochures in over 40 cities across North America. Each market's winning brochure represents excellence in their ability to maximize customer interaction through powerful and engaging design.

CTM has 19,000+ locations across the US & Canada reaching 300 million visitors every year through an unparalleled distribution network that includes attractions, visitor centers, airports, retail destinations and hotel lobbies. CTM's partnerships with more than 100 local convention and visitors bureaus as well as destination marketing organizations allows them to create greater awareness of and support for local businesses via distribution of local print, publications, and digital products and programs.

Steven Guerrini, Vice President of Sales at CTM adds, "It is with great pleasure that we congratulate the 2019 Best Brochure Award winners. All the winners have demonstrated that a brochure, beautifully and effectively designed for maximum exposure and pick-up rate, is unparalleled in-market awareness."
