

Tarps Now Accepts Requests for Proposals from EPC Construction Industry Contractors

Company Increases Commitment to EPC Construction Contractors Inviting Requests for Proposals

TARPS NOW®

TOP QUALITY STOCK AND
CUSTOM TARPS FOR OVER 30 YEARS

ST. JOSEPH, MICHIGAN, UNITED

STATES, January 30, 2020 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Tarps Now® is pleased to announce increased commitment to Construction Industry by inviting Requests for Proposals ("RFP") requests from firms engaged in providing turn-key Engineering, Construction and Procurement ("EPC") bids involving industrial grade tarp and covering products used to develop, construct, maintain and operate a wide range of facilities serving heavy industry, electric and gas utilities, oil and gas pipelines, retail shopping centers, multi-family community projects, and healthcare facility projects.

Specific to such RFP requests, Tarps Now® provides EPC contractors options to select from a complete range of standard sized, industrial grade Heavy Duty Tarps, or in the alternative, Tarps Now® provides a custom tarps and coverings application within its website which allows contractors the means to select the specifications to cover large installations such as building façades, cooling towers, back-up power generators, heavy equipment and site management coverings of all types.

To meet the demands of EPC contractors, Tarps Now® has expanded the number of lines of heavy tarps and coverings engineered to meet the needs of contractors throughout the construction marketplace. The Company is actively engaged in supporting sizeable turn-key projects requiring accurate cost quotes, rapid order processing and order deliveries of industrial grade tarps and covers throughout North America.
