

World Civility Spokesperson Dr. Clyde Rivers Endorses The World Greatness Awards

Greatness University made world history as it hosted its first ever World Greatness Awards in Great Britain. Endorsing the Awards was Dr. Clyde Rivers.

LONDON, ENGLAND, February 3, 2020 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Greatness University made world history as it hosted its first ever World Greatness Awards in Great Britain. Endorsing the Awards was World Civility Spokesman Dr. Clyde Rivers. Founder of iChange Nations. In his speech as the Guest of Honor, Professor Clyde Rivers referred to the World Greatness Awards as 'the OSCARS for the World's Greatest Civility Humanitarians'.

Awardees jetted in from over 25 countries and spent the wintry evening of 25th January 2020 celebrating greatness in the Glorious Luton Hoo: a hotel tucked away in the outskirts of London. Arriving at the Mansion House where, on 26th June 1948, the wartime British Prime Minister Sir Winston Churchill addressed over 110,000 people and thanked them for their support during the Second World War; all guests received a VIP welcome.

The World Greatness Awards were created by Professor Patrick Businge and his wife Dr Julian Businge. Standing behind the Podium of Greatness, Professor Patrick Businge who is also the founder of Greatness University said, 'In a planet where most people live in the sea of sameness, Greatness University looks for people who are doing ordinary things in extraordinary ways. These are the civility humanitarians: people who help people and value the people they help. Professor Patrick Businge congratulated the recipients of the World Greatness Awards for being recognized whilst they are still alive, for more often, people's greatness is celebrated when they are dead. Professor Patrick Businge went on to say that people need to live their greatness every day and it is ok to be great.

I am deeply honored to a part of The World Greatness Awards as they are truly recognizing those people who are changing the lives of people through their greatness.”

Kings, Queens, Entrepreneurs, Humanitarians, Authors, Teachers, Innovators received their greatness awards amid jubilation in various categories: Teachers of Greatness, Masters of Greatness, Creators of Greatness, Leading Lights of Greatness, Icons of Greatness, and Legends of Greatness. When asked why she chose the Luton Hoo, the co-creator of the World Greatness Awards Dr Julian Businge said, 'When we first visited Luton Hoo, we found the Mansion House a symbol of greatness, the serene gardens were an oasis of peace, and we specifically chose the Upper Romanov Chapel because of its art that depicted eternal greatness'. This greatness was felt by the American Entrepreneur and World Civility Ambassador Dr Christine Kozaschuk who said, 'Its an honor to be part of this... I can never imagine standing here in the greatness of what is going on tonight'.

Less than a week from the United Kingdom leaving the European Union following the Brexit vote 3 years ago, Greatness University also launched the World Book of Greatness. In his launch speech, Professor Patrick Businge described it as 'The Guinness Book of Greatness'. This yearly almanac will document the World's Greatest and Civility Humanitarians of all times.

A day after the event, The Most Admired Global African Woman and Leading Light of Greatness H.E. Dr Justina Matala, UK wrote, 'Yesterday at the stately Luton Hoo Hotel, a luxurious Grade II listed building, where Queen Elizabeth II and Prince Philip spent part of their honeymoon and the formidable British Prime Minister Sir Winston Churchill once used as his office, I was inducted into the World Book of Greatness.'
