

Future Armoured Vehicles to Explore Communication and Systems Updates on Key Platforms

Smi Reports: The 6th annual Future Armoured Vehicles Central and Eastern Europe Conference will discuss updates on platforms such as ASCOD, BOXER, CV90 and more

PRAGUE, CZECH REPUBLIC, February 6, 2020 /EINPresswire.com/ -- On 18th and 19th of May 2020, the Future Armoured Vehicles Central and Eastern Europe conference will convene in Prague to explore what nations across Central and Eastern Europe are doing to enhance and overhaul their fleets of armoured vehicles.

As a crucial modernisation goal for many nations in the region, the conference will provide a critical insight into what capabilities are being pursued by regional armed forces, reinforcing interoperability and cooperation.

In addition to this, the event will provide an unparalleled opportunity to meet and network with key programme managers, capability directors and operational commanders from the armed forces.

For interested parties, an early bird discount of £200 for bookings made by 28th February is available online at <http://www.futurearmouredvehicles.com/EINPR2>

The conference will discuss communication and systems updates on the following platforms, led by:

- ASCOD - Major General Norbert Huber, Director Armament and Procurement, Austrian MoD
