Vice President of Health Care Strategy and Innovation, Teddi R. Barber, has been selected as a speaker on the "Healthcare Town Hall: A Community Discussion on Data and Population Health" panel at the Synapse Summit. Teddi will join Florida's best innovators, payers, and providers to discuss how technology can, and will, impact healthcare in 2020 and beyond. The Synapse Summit will take place in the Amalie Arena in Tampa, FL on February 11-12th, 2020.

I am honored to join as a speaker representing the health care industry and sharing my views on digital disruption, innovative transformation and how we are navigating the changing business climate.”

Teddi Barber, Vice President at Stonehill

The Synapse Summit was designed for anyone wanting to build a thriving and prosperous future for Florida. Florida is a hotbed for innovation and entrepreneurship and the Synapse Summit brings this ecosystem together to share ideas, resources, and opportunities with the community. The Summit is a powerful platform filled with a high variety of consumers, business and community leaders, and entrepreneurs. With hundreds of speakers and thousands of attendees across different industries, innovation and inspiration can be found everywhere.

Teddi Barber plans to discuss how the health care industry is ripe for disruption in the "Healthcare Town hall: A Community Discussion on Data and Population Health" panel. Teddi will use her expertise and experience to take the audience across the Health Care Continuum and dive into an in-depth, candid discussion on the myriad of drivers influencing disruption in the health care and life sciences space. From increased merger and acquisition activity to the continued injection of technology and interoperability, the health care panel will share forecasts on what is to come in 2020 and beyond.

“I am honored to join the Synapse Summit as a speaker representing the health care industry and sharing my views on digital disruption, innovative transformation and how we, as leaders in the industry, are navigating the changing business climate” said Teddi Barber, Vice President at Stonehill. “Synapse has created a unique space for leaders to discuss critical change agents in all industries; and how intrapreneurs, entrepreneurs, and the like are meeting that change with precision in strategy and innovation in execution.”
