

SILVIA TANCREDI IS TESTIMONIAL FOR FANCS V JEWELS

Silvia Tancredi renew her collaboration with the famous italian jewels brand FANCS V.

MILAN, ITALY, February 18, 2020 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Silvia Tancredi renew her collaboration with the famous italian jewels brand FANCS V. Silvia says: "I'm very happy and proud to announce the renew of my collaboration with this great company and to wear their stunning creations! I weared for the first time their jewels for the shooting of "The Cage" - title track of the italian movie "Cam Girl", and I was really impressed for the design and the great quality of the products, and now they accompany me in every show. Thanks to Simona Elia to trust in me. Follow us on our social networks for all upcoming news." After the release of "True Love", the first radio single of her new LP, Silvia is working for the second radio single, that it's releasing in march with the US label SMG Record & Media \(distributed by The Orchard\).

Silvia Tancredi is a singer, songwriter and author.

After a broad career as a vocalist in the 2010 she releases her first solo album, "L'importante è crederci" (Edel): the sound of the eleven tracks coincides with her style and background: soul, gospel and pop.

This original sound is the strength of Silvia's music and it has attracted the attention of the specialized press.

In 2014 Silvia releases "The Cage", taken from the second LP "In Limine" (Edel): this song was featured in the movie soundtrack "Cam Girl" by the italian director Mirca Viola and related videoclip was shot in Time Square (NYC).

Since the summer of 2015 the link with NYC became stronger and Silvia come back for some gigs in Manhattan and in Harlem.
