

Global Synthetic Pigments Market Outlook 2020 - 2030

TheBusinessResearchCompany.com adds Synthetic Pigments Global Market Report 2020 to its research database.

LONDON, GREATER LONDON, UK, February 21, 2020 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The global synthetic pigments market is expected to grow at a rate of 11% and reach $40.84 billion by 2023. The demand for high performance pigments and advanced technology engineered pigments such as cool pigments, nano pigments, and pigments made from superior dispersion technologies is expected to drive the synthetic pigments market. However, the growing awareness about adverse health effects of certain synthetic pigments is pushing pigments manufacturers to shift from chemical-based synthetic pigments to natural pigments, negatively impacting the market.

“

The global synthetic pigments market was worth $27.55 billion in 2019. It is expected to grow at a compound annual growth rate (CAGR) of 11% and reach $40.84 billion by 2023.”

Abdul Wasay

The synthetic pigments market consists of the sales of synthetic pigments and related services that are used in the field of paints, inks, and plastics containing insoluble materials and minerals to endure high heat, intense light, and exposure to weather or chemical agents.
