

Announcing the ACLOUDster Alliance: An SAP Cloud Partner Group

Partnering Globally, Delivering locally.

PALMA, MALLORCA, February 20, 2020 /EINPresswire.com/ -- ACLOUDster announces that 9 SAP Gold Partners have joined forces to form an Alliance to deliver global projects reducing the risk for organisations to roll out SAP Business ByDesign, a cloud based ERP system. The 9 leading local partners serve and support small to mid-sized SAP users on-site and across the globe using the same quality standards, local languages, and of course experience in local legal and fiscal requirements.

Together, the alliance has carried out a large number of SAP projects, many of which are International. The alliance's partners currently employ more than 150 SAP Business ByDesign consultants and serve more than 15,000 SAP Business ByDesign users in more than 40 countries.

Joint founders of ACLOUDster Henrik Hausen, CEO All4cloud from Germany and Pierre Gueguen, CEO Ubister from France announced "Over the past year, we have been curating, selecting and working with an exceptional network of Gold Partners to introduce a strategic collaborative Alliance that can help organisations streamline global implementations. We believe that no one else offers the complete digital transformation solution on a global basis. ACLOUDster offers genuine and practical support allowing customers a standardised process, at a pace that suits them, reducing risk at a level of investment that guarantees transformation success as expected."

We are excited to join ACLOUDster as it provides VistaVu full access to a compliment of skills and experience necessary to service both our local and global SAP Business ByDesign customers,”

Jory Lamb

Besides the initiators, other original partners are: AlteaUp – Italy, InsynQ – Netherland, Orchard House Solutions- UK, OyS Consultares – Spain, SNAP – Slovakia and Czch

Republic, Tech Sonic – China and VistaVu Solutions – Canada and USA.

SAP's Rainer Zinow said "SAP sells exceptional products and it is clear that the ACLOUDster Alliance brings together a single team of experts intent on helping ambitious companies achieve their goals through the implementation of SAP's intelligent ERP, Business ByDesign. Through automation, modern companies can integrate every aspect their business from Finance and Sales to HR and workforce management, doing it globally has always been a challenge, with the ACLOUDster Alliance that will not be the case anymore."

"We are excited to join ACLOUDster as it provides VistaVu full access to a compliment of skills and experience necessary to service both our local and global SAP Business ByDesign customers," says Jory Lamb, CEO of VistaVu Solutions. Henrik and Pierre added "We are stronger together, partnering globally delivering locally."
