"A Magnificent Way to Spend an Evening," wrote Fred on a local blog: Biscayne Park – A Village Voice. Fred is a Physician/Psychiatrist, local blogger, and now a regular patron of Bellmónt. "Fantastic Spanish cuisine in Coral Gables. The restaurant is family owned and they gave us excellent personal service. The suckling pig was crunchy and delicious. The tenderloin was superb. It was seared on the outside and you finish cooking it on a hot stone at your table. Fun and delicious! Chorizo croquettes were also a favorite. Save room for dessert. Turrón ice cream or Banda de Manzana (apple tart) are both winners. We loved the Flamenco show. You should definitely check it out." Posted by Sandra and Kirk on TripAdvisor.com where Bellmónt has positioned itself on the top 7 restaurants in the City of Coral Gables.
