

WD-HAN: Making 'Bad' Music For The New Decade

February brings us, Bad, in which WD-HAN uses a solid beat and rich tones to make fun of disappointment instead of letting a setback bring you down.

TAMPA BAY, FL, USA, February 24, 2020 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Spring of 2020: Four songs from WD-HAN that lay the foundation for a decade – or a life. They give us the model of how to face up to interactions with others, and not become the negative effect of them.

Friday, February 28th will bring us Song One, Bad, in which WD-HAN uses a solid beat and rich tones to make fun of disappointment instead of letting a setback bring you down. Being rejected doesn't have to be about regret. Play this song, enjoy a moment of amusement, and move on. The solution is in the music, which all by itself opens new doors.

Cal Henry, Spencer Barnes and Lea Campbell of WD-HAN taken by Forrest Connor

With songs coming once a month from this talented trio the tone is set - Bad always comes before Good. This one has to be played loud. It's a celebration of self.

WD-HAN are an excellent trio of musicians. They know how to write captivating music with a hook that stays with the listener long after the music has ended.”
