

Mintec has been chosen by Procurement Leaders as a finalist for the World Procurement Awards 2020

BOURNE END, BUCKINGHAMSHIRE, UNITED KINGDOM, February 24, 2020 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Mintec, the leading independent provider of food commodity and associated raw material pricing data, has been chosen by the World Procurement Awards 2020 as a finalist for its Data Direct service.

This new data delivery service, using a REST API and Excel Add-in delivery process, provides customers with independent price information for 14,000+ commodities. Enabling them to integrate current and historical prices into their proprietary and 3rd party systems.

"We are delighted to be chosen as a finalist for this award in 2020. Which validates our belief that customers need access to data that can be integrated into existing business processes to facilitate collaboration and deliver increased efficiencies," said Spencer Wicks, CEO of Mintec.

This year the number of entries to the World Procurement Awards increased by 20% to compared to 2019, with a total of 420 extremely impressive projects.

We are delighted. It validates our belief that customers need access to data that can be integrated into existing business processes to facilitate collaboration and deliver increased efficiencies."
Spencer Wicks, CEO of Mintec

One of the judges, Ian Murphy, Managing Director at Foodbuy commented that "The World Procurement Awards are one of the most celebrated and sought-after awards in procurement and I'm proud to be part of the 2020 judging panel. Throughout the judging process, we've seen hundreds of applications and witnessed some of the best from across the procurement industry, so I'm really looking forward to the Awards ceremony in May where the esteemed winners will be announced."
