The National Veteran-Owned Business Association (NaVOBA) has opened nominations for the 2020 Veteran's Business Enterprises of the Year®

(VBEYOY). VBEYOY is a prestigious honor bestowed annually outstanding U.S. military veteran business owners. The VBEYOY awardees demonstrate the finest attributes crucial in leading a flourishing business; sustained business growth and success; and a strong drive to cultivate veteran entrepreneurship.

"NaVOBA is honored to open the search to find the 2020 Veteran's Business Enterprises of the Year®," said NaVOBA Vice President Mimi Lohm. "We've recognized so many great vetrepreneurs over the years and including numerous category winners has made it possible for us to distinguish many more exceptional veteran business owners across the diverse scope of the veteran business community."

Additional veteran-owned businesses in the following categories will be honored at special ceremonies held at corresponding events. Those honorees include the Women's, Minority, LGBT, Hispanic and Disabled Veteran's Business Enterprises of the Year®.
