As we celebrate International Women's Day and the month of March as National Women's History Month, America Lodge No. 57 is proud to carry forth the wisdom of the ages, to bring light to the feminine spirit, to have the moral courage to build a more ethical and just world, to educate, inspire, empower, and shape the future by integrating women more equally in society.

For more than a hundred years, women have stood firm in their belief that they were justly entitled to become a Freemason.

America Lodge No. 57 is a fraternal society for women, organized by women, to promote brotherly love, self-knowledge, and charity under the tenets of Universal Freemasonry.
