

Charis Bible College's Men's Advance 2020 shifts to a livestream-only event over local concerns surrounding Covid-19

College representatives made the decision in order to comply with requests from Teller County health officials regarding large gathering

WOODLAND PARK, COLORADO, UNITED STATES, March 9, 2020 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Former NFL coach Tony Dungy and sportscaster James "JB" Brown will still speak March 12-14 at Charis Bible College's Men's Advance, but only by livestream.

College representatives made the decision in order to comply with requests from Teller County health officials regarding large gathering.

The event anticipating more than 1,000 outside registrants, not including male students and staff, traditionally draws men from over 30 of 50 US states. The two-and-a-half-day conference was originally scheduled to be held in Charis Bible College's 3,165-seat auditorium, which first opened in November of 2018. This annual event is free and open to the public.

The graphic features a football player in a white jersey with red accents, holding a football. The text "MEN'S ADVANCE" is prominently displayed in white, with "ADVANCE" in a larger font. Below it, the slogan "NEVER RUN ALONE" is written in white. The dates "MARCH 12-14" are centered below the slogan. At the bottom, three hexagonal portraits of men are shown, each with their name underneath: James Brown, Andrew Wommack, and Tony Dungy. The Charis Bible College logo is in the top right corner.
