

Executive Education Academy Charter School in Allentown to Hold PSSA and Keystone Information Session

EEACS in Allentown is helping students prep for statewide standardized testing.

ALLENTOWN, PA, UNITED STATES, March 10, 2020 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Executive Education Academy Charter School in Allentown is helping students and their families prepare for statewide standardized testing. The school will be hosting a "Prep for the Test" informational session on Wednesday, March 11 at 2 pm.

Executive Education Charter School in Allentown will be holding an information session on the PSSAs and Keystone Exams.

Students in elementary, middle, and high school are required to take the PSSA and Keystone Exams. All Pennsylvania schools are held accountable for these exams, which test students in reading, writing, math, and science.

"The tests can be a source of stress for students and parents," explains Robert Lysek, founder and CEO of the Lehigh Valley Charter School. "However, we are here to help families prepare. We'll outline some study tips and ways parents can help their child."

Tests commence in spring and take several weeks to complete. All schools, whether public, charter, or online, are required to take the tests.

The Title I event will be held in the school's cafeteria. Children are invited to attend and refreshments will be available. To learn more about the academic programs available at the Allentown charter school, visit <https://ee-schools.org/academics/>.
