

Iran: Revolutionary Prosecutor's Office in Tehran's 2nd District targeted

PARIS, FRANCE, March 9, 2020 /EINPresswire.com/ -- In the early morning hours of today, Sunday, March 8, 2020, the Revolutionary Prosecutor's Office in Sa'adat Abad, in Tehran's 2nd District, was targeted by defiant youth. This office plays an active role in the suppression of dissidents, especially those arrested during the November 2019 uprising. Today's assault was carried as the clerical regime, fearing the outbreak of protests and demonstrations in reaction to the authorities' cover-up, deception, and incompetence in dealing with the Coronavirus had placed its suppressive forces on full alert ordered them to patrol the streets of the capital.
