

PSS UROLOGY Announces Unique Bipolar Resection Compatibility with the Medtronic ValleyLab™ FT10 Advanced Energy Platform

USA, March 17, 2020

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Quick-Fire™ Bipolar Electrodes for Urology were first launched by PSS Urology in 2016, offering enhanced technology and compatibility with Olympus, Karl Storz and Richard Wolf bipolar resectoscope systems. With an outstanding track record of excellent clinical outcomes and tremendous value, PSS Urology is enjoying rapid adoption in hospitals and surgery centers all over the country. PSS Urology is also gaining significant traction with group purchasing organizations who report tremendous savings vs. competitors.

In an exciting new development, PSS Urology now offers the only Urology compatible bipolar electrodes for the proven ValleyLab™ FT10 electro-surgical generator from Medtronic. The ValleyLab™ FT10 is now optimized for bipolar resection; in vitro testing and patient evaluations conducted by PSS Urology demonstrate superior performance with our Quick-Fire™ Bipolar Electrodes. Please see the procedural video below showing superb cutting, coagulation, vaporization and hemostasis of benign prostatic hyperplasia (BPH) with our SuperNOMA™ Large Loop and HEMI™ Vaporization Electrode.

Urologists state that PSS Urology bipolar electrodes and the ValleyLab™ FT10 show superior performance." said Traves Brady, CEO of PSS Urology. "They often note reduced procedure time as well."
